Our vision and mission statement

Vision
We envisage a world where young people are recognised as integral to ending the AIDS epidemic and are engaged as experts in decision-making processes and leaders in programmatic implementation.

Mission Statement
The PACT, as a global coalition of youth-led organisations, works to secure meaningful youth engagement in global decision-making spaces and provides opportunities for youth-led accountability within the global AIDS response through engaging in global events and creating tools and learning environments for our membership.
The position of The PACT

• We are not an HIV programmes-implementing organisation
• As a coalition we work to amplify and support our membership
• We aim to build strategic partnerships to ensure that HIV remains on the agenda at all the intersections of youth and sustainable development
• We leverage our global position to amplify the messages of our membership working in local contexts
Our strategic outputs for 2021 – 2025

- Increased investment for the sustainability of the HIV youth movement
- A strong HIV youth movement that is consistently supported and strengthened to achieve its goals
- Youth voices amplified to influence decisions on HIV/AIDS and related issues

How we move forward

• Improved benefits for members – cementing a synergistic way of working
• Continue to amplify voices through engaging with strategic partners in the High Level Meeting on HIV/AIDS, the Generation Equality Action Coalitions, and others
• Continue to provide a space to share learning and experiences to our membership, as well as opportunities to engage in high-level spaces
• Development of guides for young professionals to effectively work on the intersections of youth and HIV
• Build on the legacy of #UPROOT to ensure that global actors are held accountable to the needs and requirements of young people
